

Prototype Phase

Draw out the scene of your game. Be sure to label what material is being used.

What material will be used during the game? How will the player access it?

Describe what the player will do in the game? How will the player win? What happens if the player loses?